

Report on Career Road Map Seminar held on 04.08.2018

The Career Road Map Seminar, organized by the institution on 04.08.2018 in collaboration with Learning Curve Academy, was a comprehensive event aimed at guiding students in shaping their future careers. The seminar provided valuable insights into various career paths, skills development and professional growth strategies. This report presents an overview of the seminar activities, participant engagement and the impact of the event. 65 students are participated in this seminar.

Event Highlights:

The seminar featured interactive sessions with experts from the said academy. These experts shared their experiences, discussed current trends and provided valuable information about different career options. Participants gained insights into various industries, helping them make informed career choices. Workshops focusing on essential skills such as communication, leadership and problem-solving were conducted.

Career counselors were available for one-on-one sessions. Participants received personalized guidance, advice and mentorship tailored to their individual career aspirations. These sessions provided valuable insights and direction for their career paths.

Impact:

Participants expressed gratitude for the diverse range of career options presented during the seminar. Many attendees reported gaining clarity about their career goals and appreciated the exposure to unconventional yet promising career paths.

Workshop participants reported significant improvements in their skills, especially in areas like communication and problem-solving.

Conclusion:

The Career Road Map Seminar was instrumental in guiding participants toward well-informed career decisions and enhancing their skills and professional networks. The event successfully provided a roadmap for students.

