

Three-days Cluster Level Youth Volunteers Training Camp of YRC held from 28.09.2021 to 30.09.2021

Day 1: Inauguration and Orientation

The three-day cluster-level training camp for volunteers commenced on 28.09.2021 with an inaugural ceremony graced by Sri Nikhil Pawan Kalyan, IAS Collector, Sundargarh. The event began with a warm welcome by the Principal, Dr. L.R. Sahu, who emphasized the importance of community service and the role of volunteers in societal development.

Sri Kalyan delivered an inspiring speech, motivating the volunteers to actively engage in the training sessions and contribute effectively to community welfare. The day concluded with an orientation session, outlining the objectives and schedule for the training camp.

Day 2: Workshops and Interactive Sessions

Day 2 focused on training and interactive sessions facilitated by the trainers providing volunteers with practical skills and knowledge to enhance their effectiveness in community service.

Day 3: Skill Building and Closing Ceremony

The final day of the training camp continued with skill-building activities and group discussions. The participants actively engaged in group activities, exchanging ideas and experiences.

The closing ceremony, chaired by Principal acknowledged the commitment and enthusiasm of the volunteers throughout the training. Certificates of participation were distributed to the attendees. Sri Pitambar Behera Coordinated the entire event.

The event concluded on a positive note, with participants expressing gratitude for the enriching experience. The training camp not only equipped the volunteers with valuable skills but also fostered a sense of community and shared purpose.
