INTRODUCTION

- “Swachhata Divas” (Cleanliness is Service) is a nationwide campaign launched in India to promote cleanliness and hygiene across communities. Initiated by the government, this initiative emphasizes the importance of sanitation and encourages citizens to participate actively in keeping their surroundings clean. The campaign not only aims to enhance public health but also fosters a sense of responsibility among individuals to contribute to a cleaner environment. By organizing various activities, workshops, and awareness programs, “Swachhata Hi Seva” seeks to mobilize citizens towards a collective effort in achieving a cleaner and healthier nation.
